

<http://www.bismarckstate.edu/hr/jobs.asp>bsc.human.resources@bsc.nodak.edu

ELECTRICAL TRANSMISSION SYSTEMS TECHNOLOGY INSTRUCTOR

(Internal/External)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Until Filled. Applications must include the following: BSC faculty application form, letter of application, resume, copies of earned certifications, statement of teaching philosophy, three letters of reference, and official transcripts (undergraduate and graduate). (NOTE: Incomplete applications will not be considered.)

STARTING DATE: As soon as possible.

COMPENSATION: Full-time and/or open to discussing other possibilities, special non-tenure track position. Competitive salary based on experience and education. Comprehensive fringe benefit package including full coverage for family health insurance and TIAA-CREF retirement plan.

SUMMARY OF POSITION: Responsibilities include instruction and development of online courses and instructional materials directly related, but not limited to, electrical transmission and distribution. Additional responsibilities include course upgrades, student advising, record keeping, committee work, marketing programs, working with various industry advisory committees, and other duties as assigned by the Program Manager and/or the Associate Vice President for National Energy Center of Excellence (NECE).

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Appropriate associate degree or strong record of active employment in the field with agreement to complete a bachelor's degree within six years.
- Knowledge of transmission system operations and guidelines to include electrical switching procedures, troubleshooting failures within an electric system and actions needed to restore the electric system.
- Knowledge of NERC standards, FERC and regional reliability organizations.
- Good computer software skills (i.e., Microsoft Word, e-mail-Outlook, electronic calendar-Oracle, etc.).
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work cooperatively with diverse groups and to articulate and support the community college philosophy.
- Will be required to obtain North Dakota State Board for Career and Technical Education certification.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Appropriate bachelor's degree.
- Extensive industry experience.
- Curriculum development, teaching and/or training experience.

For more information or assistance contact: Human Resources (701) 224-5531. This position may require a criminal history record check.

Equal Opportunity Employer